

INSTRUCTIONS (SC – MC)

Thanks for coming to the experiment. You will receive 5 euros for participation in the experiment. Also, you will earn additional money during the experiment.

Participants have been randomly assigned to one of three roles: F, C and A. This role will be the same throughout the experiment.

There will be 18 separate periods. We will now present the instructions for the first block of nine periods. Later you will receive further instructions. In each period, you will be in a group of three participants, one in each role. The composition of each group is randomly determined at the beginning of the nine periods and stays constant during the nine periods. During the nine periods you will be with the same two persons. Also, at no time will you know the identity of who you are matched with.

Each period is independent from the others and develops in the following way. At the beginning of the period, the computer will randomly determine which of the following five games will be played.

In each of the cells the first number shown in yellow is the payoff that the person in the F role will receive, the second number shown in green is the payoff that the person in the C role will receive and the third number shown in red is the payoff for the person in the A role. As you can see all five games have five rows: f1, f2, f3, f4 and f5, and five columns; c1, c2, c3, c4 and c5. Observe also that the numbers in the different cells differ between the games.

Each of the five games has the same chance of being chosen in each period separately. That is in each period, each of the games will be chosen with 20% probability. Player F and player C will be informed of which game has been chosen, but player A will not be informed of which game has been chosen.

Before making decisions, players A, C and F have the opportunity to communicate through a chat with a time limit of 45 seconds per period. In the chat the messages that can be sent are fixed. Player will be able to send the messages ‘What game is it?’ and ‘Please, tell me the truth or not send any message. Player F can send the messages ‘It is game ____’, ‘I am telling the truth’, ‘C is telling the truth’, ‘C is lying’ or not send any message. Player C can send the messages ‘It is game ____’, ‘I am telling the truth’, ‘F is telling the truth’, ‘F is lying’ or not send any message. You can send as many messages as you want, including repeated messages, during the 45 seconds.

Once the chat has finished, player A will choose a row and a column without knowing which game has been selected.

The payoffs of players F, C and A will be the ones in the cell determined by the row and the column chosen by A for the game selected by the random draw. Remember that players F and C will send their messages independently from each other.

After each period everybody will be informed about what row and what column was chosen by A and about which game was randomly selected.

After this, a new period will start which will develop in the same way until reaching period 9. Remember that the persons you play with will not change from period to period.

Each ECU is worth 0,02 euros. At the end of the session you will receive 5 euros plus what you will have earned in all 18 rounds of the experiment.

You can ask questions at any time. If you have a question, please raise your hand and one of us will come to your place to answer it.

[Block 2] The rules will not change for the second block of nine periods. The persons you play with are the same as in the first nine periods.
